Description:

Come enjoy some Literacy with Mrs. B this summer. We will explore many different literature books together written/illustrated by well-known authors and artists. Together, we will engage in fun activities accompanying the text, all while working to build a variety of literacy skills (reading, spelling, communicating through written language, viewing, listening, comprehending, evaluating, speaking, and much more)! This class will also incorporate the use of I-Pads. Let's dip into many great books and fun activities this summer together.
